while at first his absence was not accounted for, it was later confirmed that he had undergone back surgery, and later sought rehabilitation therapy for a prescription drug injury.