on the objective test, the crown is not required to establish what was in the accused's mind as a matter of fact.

these colorations may partially be due to past hybridization with dogs and wolves.

labored in a place far from emergency assistance and then fought with the people in the nicu who were

"she said, why not? you may hate it, but if you don't try you'll never know

"